

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

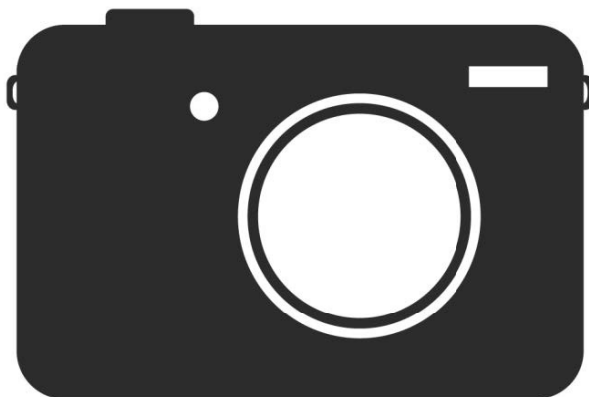

CONTENT

- Let's Start!
- Let's Explore!
- Let's Practice!
- Extension Activity
- Target Words
- Learning Points

Let's Start!

If I had my camera, I'd be taking pictures right now!

Learning Outcome

Use expressions about relationships and feelings in a range of social and work contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about social activities.
- I can talk about wishes and imaginary situations.
- I can talk about hypothetical situations.

Ask your partner:

- If you could be doing something else right now, what would you want to do? Why?
- If you could do anything with a friend on the weekend, what would you want to do?

Let's Explore!

Vanessa and Sally are out and about. Where do they decide to grab some lunch?

* To "grab some lunch" means to get some lunch.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: I really enjoyed visiting the art gallery, V. Thanks for taking me!
- Vanessa: You're welcome. I had a great time, too! I wish I could go every day!
- Sally: Uh, if you went every day, you would get bored with it.
- Vanessa: No way! The gallery has all kinds of exhibits throughout the year - I think a photography exposition is coming up next month.
- Sally: Ooh! I love photography! If I had my camera, I'd be taking pictures right now! It's so clear and crisp outside.
- Vanessa: If you had your camera, I'd be posing for you! Oh, since we missed our reservation at the restaurant, do you want to grab some lunch at the supermarket?
- Sally: You mean, have a picnic? That's a fabulous idea! I wish I wore my shawl. If I had it, we could sit on it.
- Vanessa: No worries. There are plenty of grassy areas and the ground seems dry.
- Sally: Now I really wish I remembered my camera - what a great photo op!
- Vanessa: If you took some pictures, you could use them for your blog. You could write about picnics.
- Sally: You're right! I wish I had my laptop on me so I could jot a few ideas down.

Let's Practice!

If you had your way, what would you do?

Instructions: Cross out all the incorrect words in the sentences. Correct them by saying them aloud. Check your pronunciation with your partner. Correct each other. Model a conversation using the corrected sentences. Switch roles.

1. Uh, if you go every day, you would get bored with it.
2. If I had my camera, I'd took pictures right now!
3. If you have your camera, I'd be posing for you!
4. If I had it, we sat on it.

Let's Practice!

If you could have anything, what would you wish for?

Instructions: Rewrite each complete sentence correctly. Use capital letters where necessary.

1. I wish I could gone every day! _____
2. I wish I war my shawl. _____
3. Now I really wish I remembering my camera.

4. I hope I had my laptop on me so I could jot a few ideas down.

5. I wish I don't have to work tomorrow. _____

Extension Activity

If I had a million dollars ...

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Complete the sentence, "If I had a million dollars, I would ..."
- Write at least six things you would do.
- Show your ideas to a partner and listen to your partner's ideas.
- Count how many of your ideas are the same as your partner's.
- Do you want to change your list?

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I talk about social activities.

☐
☐

I talk about wishes and imaginary situations.

☐
☐

I talk about hypothetical situations.

☐
☐

Target Words

- crisp (adjective): cool; fresh; invigorating (when talking about the weather)
e.g. It's so clear and crisp outside.
- to jot down (verb): to write down quickly
e.g. I could jot a few ideas down.
- grassy (adjective): covered with grass
e.g. There are plenty of grassy areas and the ground seems dry.
- photo op (noun): short for photo opportunity e.g. What a great photo op!
- shawl (noun): a piece of fabric worn by women over the shoulders
e.g. I wish I wore my shawl.
- exposition (noun): exhibition; display
e.g. I think a photography exposition is coming next month.

Learning Points

The Second Conditional - Talking About Hypothetical Situations

You use the second conditional to talk about unreal or imaginary (hypothetical) situations in the future.

For example:

If I had a million dollars, I would buy a car.

Do you have a million dollars? No.

Is it possible to suddenly get a million dollars? Not really.

What would you do if you had a million dollars? Buy a car.

You use the simple past verb + would

If	Condition	Result
simple past	simple past	would + base verb
If	I married Peter,	I would be happy.
If	it snowed next July,	I would be very surprised.
If	I were you,	I would be jumping up and down.

Remember to use a comma (,) after the if clause.

In conversation, it is common to use contractions. (I would = I'd)

Examples:

- If you went every day, you would get bored with it.
- If I had my camera, I'd be taking pictures right now!
- If I had my shawl, we could sit on it.

Learning Points

Talking About Wishes and Imaginary Situations

You use wish and the second conditional to talk about things you want or would like to be different now or in the future.

Wishes and sentences in the second conditional infer that what you want is probably not possible, or for some reason impossible.

Statement	Meaning
I wish it were all that easy!	It's not that easy.
If having it all were so easy, everyone would be happy.	Everyone is not happy.
If college was actually like they showed it in the movies, it would be a snap!	College is not like they show it in the movies.
I wish I could just go back for a few days and enjoy it all again.	I can't go back.
I wish I were young again!	I am not young anymore.

Examples:

- I wish I could go every day!
- I wish I had my camera!
- I wish I wore my shawl.

